THOMAS GRAHAM (Brampton East Circuit)

Was born in England, December 28th, 1817. When about twenty-five years of age he was converted to God, and immediately connected himself with the Methodist Church, and continued his membership therein until death. For twenty years or more he filled the office of class-leader with acceptance and usefulness. He was gentle, kind, cheerful and fervent. Although for several years he was in feeble health, being afflicted with chronic bronchitis, he was patient and uncomplaining, and always at the means of grace if at all fit to be out. In the class-meeting he expressed himself with confidence respecting his religious experience and prospects of heaven.

In his last illness, feeling that he was near the end of life's journey, he spoke freely and calmly of dying, and of the prospect beyond.

He fell asleep in Jesus, Nov. 5th, 1885, aged 68 years.

~~Ching~~ James Graham of Snelgrove enjoys the distinction of having attained the century mark on Sunday last. The old gentleman is known far and wide throughout the County of Peel and has always been an active vigorous man. He is still in fairly good health and able to enjoy a talk with his friends when they call upon him. Born in County Antrim on June 14, 1814, Mr. Graham came to Canada over 80 years ago and settled in Churchville, where he followed his trade as a tanner for some time. He afterwards took up land at lot 20, second line west, and remained thereon until a little more than two years ago, when he removed with his nephew, Mr. Wm. Mundell, to their present home.....

There were no children by either marriage. An ardent member of the Orange Order, Mr. Graham has only missed three walks on the 12th of July since he joined the order over eighty years ago. He was a noticeable figure in every parade, as, beaming with smiles, he took part in every procession. Of wiry and vigorous frame, he at all times possessed good health and was a hard worker until the gurden of years compelled him to take life more easily.....Mr. Graham was the eldest of a family of twelve, of whom but two other survive, Mrs. N. JAMES GRAHAM - Chinguacousy.

James Graham is dead. The end came peacefully on Sunday last at the home of Mr. Mundell. For some months the sands of time were sinking, the marvellous vitality which made possible an earthly sojourn of upwards of a century was yielding to the strain and it was known that the conqueror was at hand. James Graham was born in Ireland 102 years ago. As a young man he learned the trades of a shoemaker and tanner and after coming to Canada worked for a time in Poynter's tannery at Churchville, which is remembered by some of the older people. He was twice married, his first wife being a sister of the late Patrick McClure. Her death occurred a comparatively short time after their marriage. His second wife was a Miss Mundell. The marriage took place in Pickering Township and the newly married couple made the journey to Chinguacousy on an ox-cart, the trip which is now made in three hours occupying as many days. They settled on lot 20 on the second line, a farm he cleared of bush, where many happy though strenuous years were passed. Mr. Graham was a long time a widower, nor did any of his children live to brighten his old days. Asked by one who had known him for many years for a word regarding his life, the answer was "We are told that 'an honest man is the noblest work of God.' James Graham was an honest man." Industrious, loyal, generous, he made and retained friends wherever he went. A member of the Orange Order for three-quarters of a century, no twelfth celebration was missed. He was anxious that everyone should have the freedom which he enjoyed, but was without the slightest trace of bigotry. He believed in British connection and was determined to die under the flag. In religion he was a Presbyterian and in politics a Conservative. The funeral took place on Tuesday to Churchville Cemetery, the service being conducted by the Rev. Mr. Thornloe and Rev. Canon Walsh. The burial service of the Orange Order was said by the members of Cheltenham Lodge, to which he belonged.

THE BANNER AND TIMES

October 17th, 1915.

GRAHAM: Mr. James Graham died at the home of his relative, Mr. Wm. Mundell, near Snelgrove, on Sunday (October 3rd).

Mr. Graham was Peel's only centenarian and was in his hundred and second year. He was born in Antrim, Ireland, and came to Canada eighty-one years ago.

In this country he first lived at Churchville where his remains were buried on Tuesday (October 5th).

Deceased had been a member of the Orange Order for eighty-two years.

The late Mr. Graham was a pioneer of the country. He was a tanner and shoemaker by trade. He cleared a farm of fifty acres on second line west where he lived for over sixty years.

Mr. Graham was a lifelong Conservative and a Presbyterian.

Mr. Graham was twice married but survived his wives by many years. He had one son, Russell Graham who lives in the far west. The late Wm. Graham, of Huttonville, was a brother.

Notes from Mr. Bull - dictaphone) 14th Sept. 1935.

Graham

George Graham was the first treasurer of Peel County and was succeeded by Robert Crawford who was also a member of Grace Methodist Church.

Graham was a great raconteur, and tremendously interesting.. He and deputy sheriff Duggan went to England together and it is remembered that Graham's stories and reminiscences entertained the whole ship. There were only twenty-five cabin passengers on it.

He married Rev. McFadden's daughter.

George Graham was chairman of the High School Board and was looked on then by the students as a pretty severe and exacting man.

He used to occasionally come <sup>to</sup> the High School and give us lectures on deportment and character and Dr. Heigie would come at other times and give us more or less humorous lectures with plenty of Latin quotations in them.

(notes from Mr. Bull - dictaphone) 14th Sept. 1935.

Graham was chairman of the Magistrate's Bench in Brampton.

Graham's decisions were always considered very fair and very reasonable, particularly so if there was a lady in the case and she succeeded in seeing him beforehand.

Mrs. Wm. Graham, now in her 87th year, oldest member of Huttonville United Church, cut the huge birthday cake at the golden anniversary supper of the congregation; with the silver trowel used by Mrs. (Rev.) T.W. Hicks in laying the corner-stone of the church half a century ago. Huttonville Church was founded when Brampton Methodist congregations became self-supporting, and the old Brampton circuit was dissolved. The Huttonville congregation was formed by the union of the Springbrook Methodist Episcopal Church and Page's Church.

In order to get money to keep the children decently clothed, she used to carry wheat, a couple of sacks or so, up to an unused front room, and when I came around to buy poultry, she would get me to carry them down to Brampton to the mill, and pay me 25 cts. and I would give her the money when I went next time.
